Have you seen the applicant interact on a mission team, group trip, camp week, or in a different cultural setting? If yes, how would you describe his/her contribution? (please use the back of this page)

I find this applicant to be (please check one):

- very well-suited for a mission trip - highly recommended
- a good candidate for a short term mission project - recommended
- someone I would recommend for such a trip, but with some reservations
- not well-suited for this kind of experience
- not yet ready for this kind of experience
